

Home/

Wednesday 11th August, 2004

Sen. Fitzgerald praises omnibus fund study

Big News Network.com Thursday 5th August, 2004

- Home
- Breaking News
- Business ▶
- Editorials ▶
- Entertainment ▶
- Health ▶
- International ▶
- Internet ▶
- Markets ▶
- Media ▶
- Religion ▶
- Special Interest ▶
- Sports ▶
- Technology ▶

U.S. Sen. Peter Fitzgerald, R-Ill., Wednesday praised a study that shows some major mutual funds can't regulate market timing in group shareholder accounts.

The study, conducted by the Coalition of Mutual Fund Investors in Washington, D.C., evaluated the 50 largest mutual fund groups for the use of redemption fees and other mutual fund

The destruction by terrorists of the World Trade Center towers in 2001 has failed to put a damper on projects for new high-rise buildings. A rash of new eye-catching skyscrapers is a global phenomenon -- some recently built, such as the twin 750 foot glass walled skyscrapers of the new Time Warner Center in New York, a few under construction, and many still in the planning stage. (Click on photo for full story).

Breaking News

Wednesday 11th August, 2004

▶ Israel Insists Diplomacy Is Working Against Iran

▶ Florida Congressman Goss

policies aimed at deterring excessive short-term trading.

The study concludes funds cannot effectively enforce their policies because many of their customers are hidden in third-party omnibus accounts.

Many third-party financial institutions buy and sell mutual fund shares through omnibus accounts, in which the intermediary consolidates all of its mutual fund transactions into one order during each trading day, keeping the identities and transactions of fund shareholders invisible.

To Head CIA

✦ Libya To Pay \$35 Million To Berlin Bomb Victims

✦ Istanbul Hit By Series Of Terrorist Attacks

✦ Nagasaki Mayor Calls On U.S. To Abandon Nuclear Weapons

✦ News on other Topics

More Breaking News

Section 216 of Fitzgerald's
Mutual Fund Reform Act of 2004 would require financial intermediaries to disclose to mutual funds the identities and
trading activities
of shareholders
in omnibus accounts who buy and sell that fund's shares.

 Email this Story to a Friend

Get the top 5 headlines emailed to you every day

Add Email

[\[Add these Headlines to your Site\]](#)

[\[About Big News Network.com\]](#)

Comments or Suggestions? Use our Contact Page

Copyright © 1998-2003 Big News Network.com. All rights reserved.

This site is best viewed in Internet Explorer 5.5+ or Netscape Navigator 6+